Feast of Feseekh, Kahks, Fatureks and Shoorayks.

Procession of the Kisweh.

After the Session is closed you will be fed.

He's Gone, "but left an impression behind."

THERE will be one more disturbance in our Temple before the great pilgrimage of the Faithful, from all parts of the earth, to camping ground of the Imperial Council, on the banks of the Majestic Ohio, on the 13th and 14th of June.

Much trouble, delay and danger of mistakes, will be avoided by sending applications to the Recorder as early as possible. They must be presented before 3 P. M. to be properly listed, as there will be a large class, and the Recorder cannot receive applications, collect fees, and attend to his other duties in the few minutes after the Temple is opened before the procession moves.

PLEASE be very careful to see that applications are properly filled out and the name and address written so plainly that there can be no mistake.

AFTER several notices and a personal appeal to get the nobles to pay the small amount assessed against them for dues, the Recorder has been obliged to strike from the roll a few names. The list is enclosed; preserve it for reference.

Pilgrimage to the Imperial Council.

Toby

ALSO HIS YOUNGER BROTHER,

WHO is now being weaned, will leave the Kabba of Moslem Temple, followed by all the Faithful, at 4 P. M., on Monday, June 12, escorted by a sufficient body of Police, guarded by as many Troops as may be necessary, accompanied by Patrol Wagons and Ambulances, and watched by all the Nobles who

"Can't Go."

THE Line of March is not yet fixed upon, but the Committee will find an alley wide enough for two Nobles to march abreast if possible.

Those who for any reason cannot walk will be put in the Patrol Wagons and Ambulances.

THE STEAMER GREYHOUND will take the Caravan to To-Le-Do where Sleepers will be in readiness to receive the whole crowd.

Arrive at Cin-Cin-Nat-Ti about 7 a. m. Tuesday; march to quarters at Grand Hotel, where each Noble will be provided with an Army Cracker and a glass of W-∀-T-Ǝ-R before seeing the Sights of the Town.

Elaborate preparations have been made by Syrian Temple for the entertainment of all Visiting Nobles—any member of Moslem who does not enjoy himself, it is decreed that he shall drink a pint of W-∀-T-Ǝ-R in one day.

Full Dress, Fez and Jewel, or the new Turkish uniform, which is now being erected, will be worn by every Noble while in line.

About one hundred and fifty have signified their intention to go; we want one hundred more. Will you go?

Take your LADIES along if you wish to. The Imperial Potentatess and her Hand-Maidens will look after them.

I know it,

WM. BAILEY, Recorder.

29 Miami Ave.

I have sputtered,

LOU BURT, Potentate,
